U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The material provided with the instant reply has been considered but in accordance with the MPEP 714.12 and 714.13, it is the intention that all prosecution of an application before the examiner be concluded with the final action. Further it is the intent of any after final review to be at the cursory level. The material of the instant reply constituting 18 pages plus an affidavit that, including exhibits, of 18 pages far exceeds the consideration to be rendered in the venue of an after final. Further there are no statements in the instant reply of extenuating circumstances justifying the lateness of the applicants submission. Appropriately, in acccordance with the MPEP 714.13, further examination of the application may be obtained by filing a Request for Continuing Examination.

Simply stated, to properly evaluate the instant reply, the Examiner would have to reopen prosecution, reviewing the application in total and would again conduct a search for relevant prior art. Such action is unreasonable in the venue of an after final.
